Louisville Art Association

Invites you

To bring gently used art related materials for our donations table at the August meeting. You can contribute these items and the money made from the sales will go into LAA's general fund.

This is a great way to contribute to our organization.

A table will be set up at the August meeting . An announcement will be in the Newsletter before the meeting.

Please consider donating to LAA.

(If the items don't sell we ask you take them home and bring to the next sale.)

Juanita Connelly, an active member of the Louisville Art Association, passed away August 2, 2008 in Colorado Springs. She was born in 1931 in Kansas. She shared her art with family, friends and around the world. She loved to entertain with her husband Joe. She made beautiful jewelry, sand paintings, clay sculptures and marquetry. Juanita will be missed by LAA and the community. Louisville Art Association will present an award in her memory at the Members Show in October.
