From the President

February is a good time for LAA to celebrate love. Douglass and I generally have a romantic dinner on Valentine's Day. It's a nice thing to focus on right now as things we can't control are getting hectic: the planet heating up, politics spinning out of control, and not knowing how these things are going to change our lives and our families. Whenever I see a friend these days we have to first talk about all the unthinkable things happening on the news. For us, as artists, focusing on art-making and our association can be a way through this whirling out-of-control feeling. Art is beauty, love, communication and it's what we love to do.

The dabbler in January on art journaling was a lesson in doing art just for yourself. Even if you could not make it that day you may want to start one for your own enjoyment. Jane's workshop was about "no-rules" art making. Her guidance was to include whatever you want: words, art, magazine pictures, paint, color, stamps, textures, notes and quotes, and even lists and things you've collected and found. Looking back through the pages is a way to love yourself and find the beauty and the things we want to love.

We have an exciting year of art sharing, demos and shows planned for 2017. The art-market is improving and we'll be having record participation in all our endeavors. Thanks so much to everyone, leaders, followers, helpers and participants, who do their part to keep all the LAA programs that we love thriving.

Mini Show Winners

Mini Show Winners - Andy Schwartz and Carol Burkett

Andy Schwartz is actually the blur of activity we see at LAA meetings, setting up visual and sound machinery, and recording people and activities. Behind the scenes this dependable soul helps LAA figure out our audio-visual needs for best cost and performance. He never slows down.

LAA, PO Box 852, Louisville, CO 80027 Attn: Membership Renewal

Membership Application forms may be downloaded and printed from the LAA Website (click here to obtain the form), or may be picked up at the next Member's Meeting.

*Those who renew their membership by February 3rd will be put in a drawing to receive a free one day Workshop. Drawing will be held at the February 9th Member Meeting.

Youth Spring Show

The 2017 Youth Spring Show is underway.

Children in the Louisville/Superior area, attending the Louisville/Superior schools or are connected to LAA members are invited to enter 1 piece of art to be displayed at the Louisville Public Library the month of March. Entry forms can be found on the LAA website www.louisvilleart.org, School Art teacher, or the Louisville children's library. There is a fun reception with music, artists demo's, and refreshments. Complete details are on the call for entry (click here). The entry deadline is Feb. 25. If you have questions please contact Jane Evans 303-665-6093 or Ann Christopher at dieblumea@gmail.com.

Special Tribute Show to Diana Tripp

As you know our member Diana Tripp died last year on 10/27/16. We've been invited to attend "Special Tribute Show to Diana Tripp," February 3, 2017, Creative Framing Gallery - Louisville, Colorado. The show will be open to friends, family, and collectors from 6:00 - 6:30 pm, and to the general public at 6:30 - 9:00 pm.

Volunteers Needed

Are you looking for just the right job for 2017? Everyone of us does our part to make LAA events really sing.

National Fine Arts Show Co-Chairs Needed NOW! We have 12 members standing by to do their parts on the National Fine Arts Show. In addition Board Members are ready to help: Delly Paris is the board liaison for shows, Emilie Parker, president is helping, Brenda Weissman, admin assistant, is providing all the training materials and forms, plus our great support teams to do most of the work. Co-chairs are essential. In February co-chairs need to select and engage a judge for this show, and start to team up to create the show info that we post online at CAFÉ to go out nationally. Please let a board member know if you can do this. If we don't get the judge and prospectus done soon we can't have the show.

We need a CPA to help with our finance team in 2017. Pat Scarlotti has put in years of service and is planning to travel this year. We need to fill her shoes. Lynn Berggren is taking a leadership role with the many facets of keeping us financially healthy. Let Lynn or Emilie know if you are a CPA and can help.

New member Carol Burkett's winning dog photo hints at her professional business, Superior Imagery. She provides photographs for events and people requiring excellent images for their own businesses, as well as animal studies for fond owners.

Member Interview Bob Walsh

Driving as close as you can to the Flatirons, the approach to Bob and Rita Walsh's house feels like soaring into crystalline space. So it's no wonder that all that innovative energy happens at their home, which is filled with artwork, fascinating collections, and superb woodworking projects.

Both artistic souls percolate with creativity, but just now we're focusing on Bob. He was an electrical engineer for years. "Engineers solve problems," he says, "and they plan things." His

2017 1 and 3 Day Workshop Schedule

Workshop Time: 9:00am to 3:00pm.

Location: Louisville Art Center unless otherwise noted.

Contact: Cynthia Grossman at [c yng06@yahoo.com](mailto:c yng06@yahoo.com) to register and for more information. Once you sign up for a workshop, you need to send Cynthia a check to secure your place. Her address is:

Cynthia Grossman
 1345 Snowberry Lane
 Louisville 80027

Fees: The LAA Board has determined that workshop fees must be increased in order to continue to obtain great artists to teach the workshops.

One day workshops: Members will pay $50 and non-members will pay $70.

Three day workshops: Members will pay $200 for the 3 days and non-members will pay $250.00 for the 3 days.

approach to painting speaks to this idea. He likes water color because it requires planning, and understanding before the brush hits the paper what will happen in what he calls his "one stroke technique." "As soon as the brush sweeps once," he says, "you're done."

Illustrative of his orderly approach is the tidy, many-paged folder with samples of watercolor manufacturers' colors, described with the tiny symbols that describe what, besides color, will result from their use. He knows these characteristics ahead of time, and keeps records of his experiments. His current "art coach" is Jane Friday, who guides the artistry on his pieces and keeps him painting regularly.

Bob has been in LAA since 2006 and a board member from 2010 - 2012, serving as president in 2011. Bob's painting came to a pause with the 2013 floods. Water tore down from the base of the Flatirons, and he spent 36 hours pumping out window wells. The studio basement walls were pushed inward two inches, cracks gaped, and it wasn't until 2016 that repairs were completed. His latest repair was regrading the yard and installing the xeriscape garden that is poised to roar with color as soon as it warms. He refers to the garden as his "750-square-foot art project."

The two travel widely, particularly to Nova Scotia's music festivals.. Painting musicians forms a deep preoccupation, but "not when they can see you." If he's found out, his subjects may begin to pose. Catching them during rapt concentration is paramount. When traveling, he experiments now with digital painting with ProCreate on his ipad, which potentially eliminates all the fuss with watercolor equipment when on the move.

You might want to check out a video he made of the history of LAA at the behest of Susannah Vandyke. It's available in the LAA library, a wheeled assembly which appears at LAA meetings. - McKee

P.S. I really apologize for spelling Barb McGehan's name once last month with two "e's". It just ain't so.

Open Studio Mondays

LAA will host open studio time for artists who would like to bring their own current projects to work on, from 9 to 12 noon at the art center. The next meetings are February 6th and 13th. No fee for members. Contact Barb McGehan at barbaramcgehan@aol.com.

Workshop and Dabblers Details

Workshop February 8th, 2017 - Randy Hale - Watercolor, www.halegallery.com

Spend this day with Randy as he takes you on an "adventure in color." He'll have you re-evaluating what it takes to MAKE ART. Join him in painting dynamic landscapes where even shadows are an adventure in color. This exciting workshop will explore the importance of "entertaining" the eye!

Workshop March 28, 29, 30 - Chuck Ceraso - About Color, www.chuckceraso.com

More like sculpting with colored shape, Ceraso's approach is unique in that it goes beyond the emphasis of value relationships and uses the power of color observation to understand and capture the visual

Plein Janes Schedule

A little play on words there... As you know, the warm season paint outs have ended, but we are going to try something new this year for the colder (?) months. Once a month, we will gather to continue our social connection, work on art, ask for and give feedback to those who want it. And yes, you could wear your winter PJs if it ever gets cold enough!

All sessions are open to anyone, whether or not you painted en plein aire with us this year. As with PJs, the time frame of 9:00am-12pm is loosely structured, meaning you can come and go as you wish. Here are the dates and locations for the upcoming months:

- Feb. 17                      Louisville Arts Center
- Mar. 17                      Louisville Arts Center

sensation. This brings a greater aliveness to the painted image.

Workshop June 8, 9, 10 - Michael Clark- Plein Air,

www.michaelclarkfineart.com

You will learn how to create clean color and bold brush work, creating a painting in just a couple of hours. Through demos and individual instruction your paintings can reach new heights.

Workshop June 21 - Francesca Morales Cook - Jewelry

Step into the magical world of metal jewelry. An introductory workshop to learn several metal work techniques, including forging, disc cutting, dapping and texturing. No previous experience is needed.

Workshop August 26 - Rey Ford - Oil Painting,

www.reyfordfineart.com

Understanding the process of Abstract Realism. Learning to paint from understanding rather than copying what you see. Understanding the use of light is key in the process. How it behaves on and around objects.

Workshop September 21, 22, 23 -

Stephanie Hartshorn - Perspectives,

www.studiohartshorn.com

This 3 day workshop will cover parallel and angular perspectives. After the basic teaching, these new skills will be used to draw and paint buildings in area.

Workshop October 3 - Colleen Tucker - Abstract

Helping artists approach their painting in a loose and abstract manner. Colleen will be painting on a large canvas so you can see her technique. Bring one of your own paintings to use as a reference. Come prepared to have fun. Nothing serious no rules.

Workshop November 18 - Valarie Amon- Fearless Painting from Photo References, valerieamon.com

Valarie will help you get out of the photo reference rut. She will discuss composition and focal points. Then you will use a method of laying in and painting using cameras and camera phones to document the progress. You will learn to paint from your gut. A fun and lively workshop.
